Description
The Department of Economics at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia invites applications for a fellowship in:

- Title:

  Methodologies of stakeholder involvement for the implementation of case studies and technological decision support tools.

  - Academic Discipline or disciplines specifically identified by the call SECS-P/06;
  - scientific coordinator and tutor: Prof. Nicola Camatti
  - duration: 12 months

abstract:
The research aims to develop a methodology for the involvement of stakeholders useful for the implementation of case studies in tourism and to implement technological solutions to support the food system sector. These activities will aim at (1) analysing case studies in the field of cultural tourism useful to bring out cases of success or failure in the use of cultural resources of a tourist destination. Data collection, drafting of reports and presentation and participation in operational meetings are planned; (2) building a database of stakeholders and case studies in the field of urban and regional food systems useful to highlight cases of success or failure in food production, distribution, reuse and disposal systems in the cities observed within the project CITIES2030. The researcher will then be employed in both the SmartCultour and the Cities2030 project for a total of hours and costs that meet the activities foreseen in the application forms of these projects.

Data collection, reporting and presentation activities and participation in project meetings in the presence and online are planned. Project management, communication, dissemination and coordination between partners, promotion of research phases, partial and final results relating to the research activity itself and the project (such as meetings, conferences, presentations, newsletters, etc.) are also required.

Who can apply
Prospective candidates are expected to hold a master’s degree in international relations, class 60/S and LM52 and in the subjects of the research, or related disciplines.
Ca’ Foscari encourages applications from researchers with positive evaluation in all the criteria in individual proposals such as Marie Skłodowska Curie Actions - Individual Fellowships/ERC Starting Grants/FIRB (Italian Fund for basic research investments)/SIR (Scientific Young Independence Research) or similar. Researchers having successfully completed Marie Skłodowska Curie Actions - Individual Fellowships/ERC Starting Grants/FIRB (Italian Fund for basic research investments)/SIR (Scientific Young Independence Research) or similar funded projects are warmly encouraged to apply.
