Rules of eligibility – Beneficiaries

Citizens belonging to European Union member states and non-community citizens in possession of the following qualifications may take part in the selection:

- a) Master's degree in historical and archaeological disciplines;
- b) Scientific-professional curriculum suitable for the development of the activities.

Applicants must hold all the requisites within the call deadline. The qualifications will be evaluated by a Commission that examines the eligibility and qualifications of the candidates and makes a merit rank of them.

Evaluable titles

- PhD in historical/archaeological disciplines;
- documented research activities in public and private entities with contracts, research grants, scholarships, or assignments both in Italy and abroad related to archaeological heritage.
- publications relating to the study and valorization of archaeological heritage.
- specialization Diploma and/or Masterclass attendance certificates (master post lauream).

Skills required

- Proven ability in the management and promotion of cultural events, with a focus on archaeological heritage;
- experience in applying digital solutions for the documentation, analysis, assessment of data, and enhancement of archaeological heritage (e.g., design and implementation of databases, GIS software);
- digital skills for archaeological heritage communication, with experience in using software for the creation and management of textual, visual, and multimedia content (e.g., Microsoft Office, Adobe Creative Suite);
- good knowledge of the English language.

At the end of his/her research activity, the research fellow is required to provide the Department with:

- an Activity Report
- Conducting comprehensive assessments to identify the digital skills gaps and training needs among project partners and target groups (Work package n°2 - ANALYSES AND REPORTING);
- Equip cultural heritage professionals with digital skills to develop an innovative curriculum, fostering a digital mindset and addressing current and future vocational needs (Work package n°3 - DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION OF CULTURAL HERITAGE);
- Design training programs on disaster risk management for cultural heritage and promote knowledge sharing and best practices among professionals in the field (Work package n°4 - DISASTER RISK MANAGEMENT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE);
- Sharing project results at the national level with authorities, institutions, NGOs, and experts in the fields of education, culture, and tourism (Work package n°5 - DISSEMINATION AND EXPLOITATION).

Incompatibility

The short-term research fellowship may not overlap with:

- other short-term research fellowships granted in any capacity, apart from those granted by national or foreign research institutes in order to integrate with periods abroad the specific activity foreseen by the work plan of the appointed fellow;
- attendance of PhD courses with short-term research fellowship and medical specialization, in Italy and abroad;
- research grants "assegni di ricerca"

Short-term Research Fellowship holders may carry out self-employed work or occasional or permanent collaborations, as long as this is coherent with the ongoing research, upon approval and on the condition that:

- does not involve a conflict of interest with the specific research activity carried out;
- does not prejudice the university, in relation to the activities carried out.

Subordinate employment contracts holders, in addition to obtaining permission by the university, must provide the authorization of their employer.

In the specific case that the subordinate employment contract started prior to the awarding of the fellowship, compatibility with the existing employment will have to be assessed; if the assessment yields a negative result, the Short-term Research Fellowship will not be awarded; in the case of a positive result, the successful candidate will have to provide the authorization of his/her employer within 15 days.

In the event that the subordinate employment contract will start once the fellowship is ongoing, the successful applicant is required to notify this change at least 30 days before the start of the employment contract for an assessment of compatibility; if the assessment is negative, the fellowship will cease by the start of the employment contract; in the event of a positive outcome, the successful applicant must provide the authorization of his/her employer within 15 days.

The awarding of the short-term research fellowship does not imply the establishment of any employment contract, nor does it give rise to any rights of access to positions of employment at the university
